

Dallas Seymour

After Nick Tuatasi came it was Dallas Seymour's turn to speak. He said "it's great to see you all here." He told us about when he was playing sevens at the Commonwealth game and the team won gold! He talked about all of the leaders throughout his life. A leader is someone who challenges, debates, discusses and achieves.

Great Captains are:

Prepared to do what is right, Lead by an excellent example, Are Principled, Never back down, Promote others, Respect the gold standard, know when to ask for help and are never alone.

Great Captains like

Eric Rush- All Black, Richie McCaw- Crusader, Todd Blackadder - All Black and Sir Edmund Hillary- Climbed Mount Everest. All these people had points about themselves.

Eric Rush

- Totally uncompromising
- Fitness was equaled
- Demanded nothing but the best in representing New Zealand and wearing the Black Jersey
- Right attitude for the right occasion
- Pushed many to become great All Blacks

Todd Blackadder

- Demanded nothing but the best of everyone
- Never gave up
- First to head into battle and last to leave
- Encouraging of others
- Incredibly humble

Richie McCaw

- Dedicated to improvement
- Actions to speak louder than words
- Gets on with the job
- Incredibly humble

Sir Edmund Hillary

- Built schools
- Climbed Mount Everest

Then he said some key words in Maori

- Ko te kai a te rangatira he korero
- Mate atu he tete kura ara mai ra he tete

Also in our notebook there are some quotes, this is Sir Edmund Hillary's quote

- You don't have to be intellectually bright to be a competent leader.
